Training Course Registration, Cancellation & Refund Policy

Effective Date

September 2026

Introduction

This policy applies to courses, classes, workshops, and other training programs provided by Nag's Beauty Supplies & Training Centre. By registering for training, students agree to the applicable terms below.

1. Age Requirements

Students 19 years of age or older may register for training on their own behalf. Students under 19 years of age require the approval of a parent or legal guardian. Nag's Beauty may require the parent or legal guardian to complete or sign registration, consent, waiver, or other required documentation. Certain courses may have additional minimum-age, prerequisite, health, safety, or certification requirements.

2. Registration and Deposits

A deposit may be required to reserve a student's seat. ALL COURSE DEPOSITS ARE NON-REFUNDABLE, except where a refund or cancellation right is required by applicable law. Registration is not considered confirmed until the required deposit or payment has been received and the student's registration has been accepted.

3. Outstanding Course Balance

Any outstanding balance must be paid by the deadline communicated during registration. Failure to make payment by the required deadline may result in cancellation of the registration and forfeiture of the deposit, subject to applicable law.

4. Student Cancellations

Students who cannot attend a scheduled course should notify Nag's Beauty as soon as possible. Course deposits remain non-refundable when a student cancels, except where otherwise required by applicable law.

5. Rescheduling

7 or more days before the scheduled course: The student may request one transfer to another available course date without a rescheduling fee. The original deposit remains non-refundable.

3–6 days before the scheduled course: A transfer to another available course date may be permitted, subject to a $50 rescheduling fee. The original deposit remains non-refundable.

Less than 72 hours before the scheduled course: The registration is not eligible for transfer, rescheduling, credit, or refund, except where otherwise required by applicable law.

A registration may normally be transferred/rescheduled only once.

6. No-Shows

A student who fails to attend their scheduled course without providing the required advance notice will be considered a no-show. NO-SHOWS ARE NON-REFUNDABLE. Except where otherwise required by applicable law, a no-show will not receive a refund, credit, transfer, or rescheduling, and amounts paid for the missed course may be forfeited. A student wishing to attend on another date will be required to register and pay for a new course.

7. Late Arrivals

Students must arrive on time and be prepared to participate for the full duration of the course. Significant lateness may prevent participation where missed instruction could affect safety, practical training, assessment, or successful course completion. Where participation cannot reasonably continue due to significant lateness, the applicable late-cancellation/no-show provisions may apply, subject to applicable law.

8. Cancellation or Rescheduling by Nag's Beauty

Nag's Beauty may occasionally need to cancel or reschedule training due to instructor availability, insufficient enrollment, emergencies, severe weather, or circumstances outside our reasonable control. Affected students will be contacted using the information supplied during registration. If Nag's Beauty cancels a course, affected students will be offered an appropriate alternative date or other remedy in accordance with applicable law.

9. Course Kits, Products and Materials

Certain training programs may include or require professional products, tools, kits, manuals, or other materials. Once course kits, products, or materials have been issued, opened, used, personalized, or otherwise made non-resalable, they may not be eligible for return or refund, subject to applicable law. Students are responsible for bringing any products, equipment, tools, or other items identified as required for their course.

10. Models

Some practical courses may require students to provide a suitable model. Where a student is responsible for providing a model, the model must satisfy any requirements communicated before the course. Failure to provide a required model may prevent the student from completing the practical component of the training. Nag's Beauty cannot guarantee an alternative model will be available.

11. Attendance and Certificates

Students must satisfy applicable attendance, practical work, assessment, and other completion requirements before receiving a certificate of completion. Payment for or attendance at a course does not automatically guarantee successful completion or issuance of a certificate.

12. Professional Requirements

Training provided by Nag's Beauty is educational in nature. Completion of a course does not guarantee employment, clientele, income, business success, professional licensing, or certification by an outside organization unless expressly stated for a particular program. Students are responsible for determining whether additional licences, certifications, insurance, permits, or regulatory requirements apply before providing services professionally.

13. Student Conduct and Safety

Students are expected to behave professionally and respectfully toward instructors, staff, clients, models, and other students. Students must follow all hygiene, sanitation, product-use, equipment, and safety instructions provided during training. Nag's Beauty reserves the right to remove a student from a class for unsafe, threatening, abusive, discriminatory, seriously disruptive, or otherwise inappropriate conduct.

14. Photography and Video

Photographs or videos may occasionally be taken during training for educational, promotional, website, or social-media purposes. Where required, appropriate consent will be obtained before identifiable photographs or videos of students or models are used.

15. Acceptance of Policy

By registering for training, the student—and, where applicable, their parent or legal guardian—acknowledges that they have reviewed and accepted the applicable registration, cancellation, rescheduling, no-show, and refund terms, subject to rights provided by applicable law.
